B-29 FORCE FIRE-BOMBS SMOKING TOKYO

Meandering Along the Main Stem
By WASH FAYETTE

A former Fayette County boy, Dana Wilson, might find this an opportune time to send some lessons in salesmanship to some of his old friends here.

Now a resident of Toronto, Canada, he has been working as a solicitor on Canada's Eighth Victory Loan—they are one up on us—and his record tops that for any one salesman in a residential district in all Canada. His sales totalled $852,000.

Dana Wilson's civilian wartime achievement was recounted modestly in a letter to two old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fortier who have one of those cozy and intimate neighborhood grocery stores out on Washington Avenue.

He will have a brass ash tray made from a shell casing used in this war as a token of appreciation of his efforts and a memento he can bring back some day as evidence of his ability as a salesman.

A small group of us stood in front of the City Building watching the dozens of chimney swifts, or swallows, as they poured in and out of the large air vent on chimney at the south corner of the Eagle Building at Fayette and Market streets.

The swifts, with a series of sharp chirps, would circle about the building, sometimes as many as 50 or more in the flock, and when one suddenly made a plunge into the chimney, the others followed in quick succession until we all wondered how they could come to rest so suddenly within the dark chimney.

Then, just as suddenly as they entered the chimney, they would pour out until several dozens were on the wing once more.

I would say that more swifts occupy that one chimney than can be found in any dozen other chimneys in the city.

These unusual birds, which feed on insects to a large extent, build their nests inside chimneys by using small twigs which they fasten securely to the walls and cement them together by saliva that sticks like so much glue.

OUTPUT OF NEW CARS IS TO START SLOWLY
WPB Gives Authority for 200,000 This Year

DETROIT, May 25.—(P)—America's automobile industry sped plans today for its gradual return to car making, a low-gear proposition for the time being.

After more than three years of total effort in the war, the industry had the War Production Board's authority to produce 200,000 passenger cars this year.

The WPB granted the authorization yesterday but stipulated that the industry must find its own materials in the "free markets" and that no materials priority would be given.

It was expected that few new cars would roll off the assembly lines before October 1.

The general buying public is likely to have to wait many months before new cars will be available.

USO TO KEEP ON
SALT LAKE CITY, May 25.—(P)—United Service Organization centers will continue to operate for about two years after V-J Day, during demobilization, according to Mrs. Elizabeth Luce Moore, chairman of the National USO Council.

Nellie nursed him back to health while her family secreted him from the Nazis for seven months. He penetrated Nazi lines, returning April 14, 1945, to marry the girl who saved his life. Break With Spain And Franco Ouster Is Urged By France

Action Proposed To United Nations With Request That Spain Be Forced To Hand Over Pierre Laval, Under Death Sentence for Treason

PARIS, May 25.—(P)—The French Foreign Affairs Committee asked the De Gaulle government today to break relations with Spain, force the extradition of Pierre Laval and propose means to the Allied Nations to force Generalissimo Franco from office.

The committee is composed of members of the assembly and it corresponds roughly to the United States Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

The recommendation to Gen. De Gaulle's government asserted that the Franco regime was no different from the erstwhile Fascist government of Italy before its surrender.

The Spanish regime was termed a menace to world democracy.

The committee also demanded that the government lose no further time in forcing Spain to hand over Pierre Laval to France.

Laval, chief of government in the Vichy regime, is under death sentence this morning.

German Prisoners Are Put to Work Under Freed 'Slave Labor' Guards

REIMS, France, May 25.—(P)—If anyone in the United States thinks the life of a German prisoner of war is one of ease, luxury and fancy diet, he should wangle a trip to the French countryside east from Paris.

Germans, in faded and patched fatigue uniforms of the U. S. Army and German Army caps, are everywhere, working on every tough and nasty job to be found. And right behind them everywhere is a tough-looking guard with a handy gun. They are loading and unloading supplies. They are mending roads. They are sweeping streets. They are cobbling shoes, mending galoshes and patching torn equipment in salvage depots. They are

Body of Nazi Hangman Still Lies On Bare Floor
Himmler Dies With Socks On

By WILLIAM F. BONI

BRITISH SECOND ARMY HEADQUARTERS, May 25.—(P)—Second Army officials still are undecided today whether to hold a funeral for Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler in the presence of German military and civilian bigwigs who are in Allied hands.

Thirty-six hours after the suicide death by poison of the SS Chief his body still lay on the bare floor of a Lueneburg villa.

Himmler took his life Wednesday night by crushing a tiny glass vial of poison between his teeth as a British medical officer was examining him.

He was wearing only a pair of socks. His clothing had been stripped from him in a previous examination.

Number one on the list of German war criminals, the once dreaded head of the Gestapo had been arrested last Monday as he and two bodyguards tried to cross a bridge west of Hamburg.

He was wearing a patch over his eye, was in civilian clothes, and was carrying forged papers which identified him as "Hit-zinger." His moustache had been shaved off. His papers did not satisfy the guards, and all three men were taken to a detention camp.

Himmler later demanded an interview with the camp commander. Summoned before a British officer at 7 P. M. Wednesday, Himmler revealed his identity.

A small vial of poison was found in the clothing that had been taken from him, but the vial with which he ended his life was not detected. Apparently he had kept it lodged along his gums the three days that preceded his death.

The physician in Lueneburg had made a painstaking examination of Himmler, searching even behind his ears. Then Himmler was ordered to open his mouth and roll back his tongue.

Because the response was unsatisfactory Himmler was ordered to approach the light and open his

Daniels Measure Seen as Test For Gov. Lausche

By REED D. SMITH

COLUMBUS, May 25.—(P)—A major political test for Gov. Frank J. Lausche shaped up today in the Ohio legislature.

The House of Representatives placed on its calendar for Tuesday the Senate-approved Daniels-Cramer bill appropriating $111,000,000 to schools for the biennium.

Lausche has indicated that if the measure passes he will veto it on ground the amount is "unreasonable."

The governor has recommended $104,220,000, an amount contained in the Biennial Appropriations bill, which he said would give schools $10,499,266 more than they had in 1943-44. He asserted the Daniels-Cramer measure would provide a $17,243,266 increase by extending its operation into the next biennium.

The powerful school lobby, which is backing the Daniels-Cramer measure, met its first major setback in the House yesterday when a bill to assist school districts in obtaining additional state aid was defeated by a vote of 35 for, 70 against.

The measure sponsored by Rep. Dan S. Yoder (R., Wayne) was described as a companion bill to the Daniels-Cramer proposal and designed to "put the major responsibility for financing on the state."

It would have allowed school districts having a three-mill levy within the ten-mill limitation to obtain additional state aid provided the millage levy and the flat distribution by the state failed to

Big Power Domination Of Peace League Looms

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—(P)—The big powers are reported today to have lined up enough votes in the United Nations conference to block any change in their absolute control of world machinery designed to preserve peace.

This issue—the veto power of any of the big five over settling international disputes or using force to smash an aggressor—is the most critical remaining for this assembly. The decision hour comes as Secretary of State Stettinius returns from talks with President Truman.

Many committees are striving to wind up their work by this weekend to allow public discussion of their reports in the four big conference commissions early next week.

Among their latest accomplishments are agreement on provisions to strengthen the economic and social work of the new league, and to outlaw secret treaties, once the world organization is functioning.

In the veto dispute many small nations are demanding that the authority of the big powers in a projected world organization be restricted sharply so that an 11-

PROOF OF GUILT PARTLY BURNED

Czechoslovakia and Poland First on Victim List

BERCHTESGADEN, May 25.—(P)—Stenographic notes the Nazis tried unsuccessfully to destroy have revealed a secret, self-indicting account by Adolf Hitler saying he planned the "crushing" of Czechoslovakia and Poland as "essential preliminaries for the war of the future" against the Allies.

Hitler said Germany was "superlatively prepared" for war and that psychologically she "could not afford to waste" Nazi-schooled fanaticism, which he feared might die down.

Hitler's report, made to division commanders last December 12, was the most spectacular find to date by American officers studying thousands of pages of partly charred notes which are shaping up as a terrific indictment of Nazi war guilt.

Made just before the American Ardennes offensive, Hitler's statement belied the Nazis' excuse that they had started the war because of alleged Polish provocations. Hitler outlined his plans made in peacetime for war in this order: "First, immediate introduction of universal military service. "Second, re-establishment of

HITLER STILL ALIVE BELGIAN NAZI SAYS

Talked With Him Day Before Reds Entered Berlin

MADRID, May 25.—(P)—Leon deGrille, former Belgian Rexist leader, under sentence of death in his homeland for collaboration with the Germans, was quoted today as expressing his belief that Adolf Hitler is alive and in hiding.

A Spaniard who talked with deGrille at San Sebastian, said he asserted he had talked with Hitler in Berlin the day before the Russians entered the city.

deGrille was quoted as saying Hitler was preparing for an attempt to escape and that he did not appear to be in a mood either for suicide or a fight to the death.

Yanks Slog Ahead on Okinawa As Suicidal Nips Attempt Airborne Attack

By LEONARD MILLIMAN (By the Associated Press)

American superforts struck Tokyo in large force today, perhaps duplicating the 550-plane fire bomb attack on the city only two days ago.

The 20th Air Force at Washington announced today's Tokyo attack, and from Guam, base of the B-29s, came reports that the Nipponese capital was still burning from the 4,500 tons of incendiaries dropped in the previous assault. Photographs showed at least 3.2 square miles of the industrial area was damaged by fire.

Tokyo radio reported the city had been attacked again, but said only a few of the big planes came over escorted by 60 Mustang fighters from Iwo Jima. The broadcast also said the B-29s laid mines in Toyama bay, near Tokyo and in the Kanmon strait entrance to the inland sea.

Modern Area Hit

The new area to fall under the B-29 bombings probably has the best built and most modern buildings in Japan. These included the nation's largest, so-called fire-proof and earthquakeproof, office structures.

In the target area also are piers, docks, wharves and warehouses of the highly important sector of Tokyo's waterfront north of the Shinagawa rail marshalling yards, bombed Thursday.

Outside the Marunouchi business district the target area is known to include several important war plants.

Extensive military storage areas also are located in this region.

Peace Feelers Out

A Tokyo broadcast declared today there was "no reason" for Russia to "engage in war with Japan" and also said that if Japan should desire peace with Britain and the United States, her proposals possibly would be made through the U.S.S.R.

The broadcast asserted that although "Britain and America are doing all they can to drag Russia in, Russia needs to reconstruct first of all and there is no reason for her to throw away this opportunity" by engaging in war with Japan.

Japs Have Jitters

A Tokyo radio commentator today predicted American troops would soon attempt to land on Amami Island in the northern Ryukyu chain some 200 miles south of Japan.

War jittery Japanese officials today established a bureau for informers among "the people."

The bureau, Domei news agency reported, will "receive letters, interview voluntary reporters and listen to various problems pertaining to crime and its relative ideologies, to economics and to the maintenance of public peace and order."

The office of the public procurator of Tokyo, which will maintain the bureau, will keep the names of informers "strictly confidential in order not to inconvenience them," the broadcast stated.

Battle for Okinawa

An unconfirmed Japanese communique said airborne Nipponese troops landed on two American airfields on Okinawa, where they blew up aircraft.

COUNTY PREPARES TO HONOR WAR DEAD WEDNESDAY

MEMORIAL DAY PARADE STARTS AT 10 A. M. HERE

Program at Cemetery Set by American Legion; Rev. Abernethy Speaker

Preparations for honoring Fayette County's war dead were moving forward today as the American Legion and other veterans organizations worked on last minute details of the observance here.

Next Wednesday at 10 A. M. the annual Memorial Day parade will begin, marshalled by Col. Rell G. Allen, whose yearly managing of the parade has become a tradition here.

Col. Allen and Capt. C. V. Sexton this year will share the responsibility of forming the parade and keeping everything going until it reaches the gates of the cemetery.

Veterans of World War II and servicemen here on furlough have a special invitation to march in the parade. If the veterans still have their uniforms, they are asked to wear them.

The parade will form at the corner of Main and Market Streets to begin marching to the cemetery. From the corner it will go to the post office and then turn left on Hinde Street to Court Street. The line of march will go out Court Street and Washington Avenue to the cemetery.

Besides the American Legion and VFW, the Boy Scouts and Campfire Girls also are to march. And at the head of the parade will be the uniformed high school band and its director, William B. Cliff.

The program at the cemetery will feature Rev. John K. Abernethy who is to make the memorial day address. Rev. George B. Parkin, chaplain of the Paul H. Hughey post, will give the invocation and benediction.

W. B. Hyer will read Gen. Logan's "General Order Number One" and C. V. Sexton will read Lincoln's Gettysburg address. The band will play "Tenting Tonight" and "America" at the cemetery. Charles E. Morgan, past commander, will be master of ceremonies.

The Legion committees for the Memorial Day services are: program, W. E. Passmore, Walter Hutton and Maynard Craig; parade, Rell G. Allen and C. V. Sexton; flowers, R. B. Tharp, H. D. Fogle and Herbert Plymire; platform and chairs, Sherman Hidy, B. H. Crouse, Wilbur Matson; public address system, Fred Dennison, Willard Rutledge and Leslie Curtin; autos, Garrett Ramey, Orland Hays and Robert Meriweather; firing squad, Ott Lee and Harry Jones.

The small cemeteries scattered throughout the county are not to be neglected by the legion. Bouquets will be put on graves of veterans of 11 other cemeteries at 8 A. M. on Memorial Day.

Harry Hiser and Frank Smith will decorate the Milledgeville Cemetery. Other cemeteries and the men who will put flowers on graves are: Staunton, Warren Brannon, Maryon Mark and J. J. Burris; Cochran, Richard Willis and W. L. Burris; Sugar Grove, George Fogle, Chester Dunn and Chalmers Kelley; Compton, Andy Gidding, Walter Fultz and Jess Allen; Bush, Oran Ellis, Otis Hess and Rollo Hodge; White Oak, C. C. Eakins, J. H. SENDS CARD FROM JAP PRISON CAMP

Mrs. Garrett Ramey Hears From Brother

An undated postcard such as used in carrying messages from Jap prison camps, has been received by Mrs. Garrett Ramey from her brother, Staff Sgt. Walter Howard, who has been in Jap prisons for some three years after having been captured with the fall of Bataan, in the Philippine Islands.

Although the card bears the name of a Japanese prison camp in the Philippine Islands, word was received from the War Department that he had been moved to the Japanese mainland some weeks before the prisoners in the camp on Luzon were liberated by the American forces.

The message just received states that Howard is well and he asks that cigarettes and food be sent him as often as possible.

provide the financial minimum per pupil guaranteed under the school foundation program.

Present law provides that if the total levy is under ten mills, including the three-mill school levy, districts must make additional assessments for school purposes to a total of ten mills before they can receive additional state aid.

Defeat of the Yoder bill was not regarded, however, as indicative of a similar fate for the Daniels-Cramer measure during next week's abbreviated legislative session. Both Houses will recess Tuesday for the week in observance of Memorial Day.

The Senate Finance committee was scheduled to begin consideration of the $391,499,969 appropriations bill Monday but a minimum of three weeks was expected to elapse before it reaches the Senate floor.

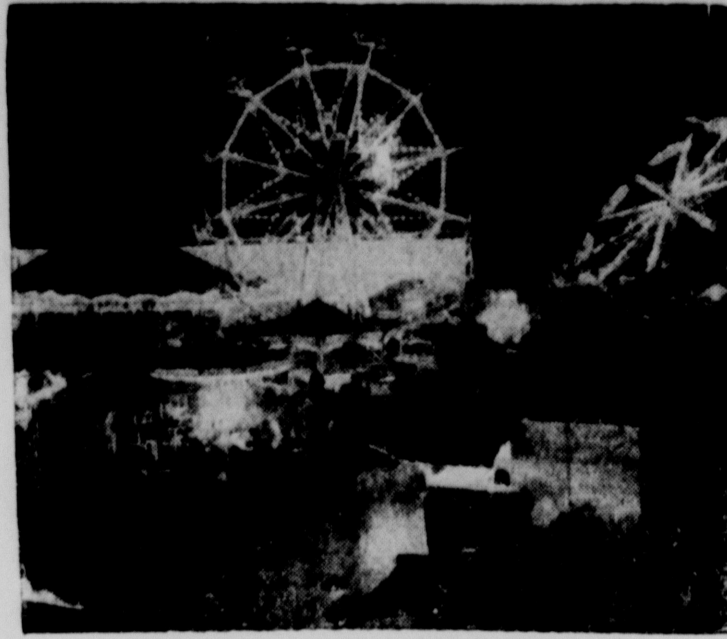

Another bill on the Senate Finance committee's schedule calls for an allocation of $18,000,000 yearly in sales tax revenues to local sub-divisions. A similar bill was cut to $12,000,000, the same as present allocations, before it was passed by the House and sent to the upper chamber.

The House Finance committee killed legislation to appropriate $1,000,000 for reimbursing political sub-divisions for public property loss and extra expenses in fighting the recent Ohio River flood. It had passed the Senate.

The Senate completed passage of a bill increasing from two to five years the time during which members of fire departments may be reinstated after separation for recovery of injuries. Sen. Roscoe R. Walcutt (R, Franklin) sponsored the measure.

LEGION FESTIVAL SPARKLES

With thousands of different colored light bulbs weaving a tapestry-like design against a dark sky, the F. E. Gooding Amusement Company, located at the Old Fairgrounds on Columbus Avenue, is not only a place of amusement but a thing of beauty.

Thirty amusements are on the midway and one of the most popular is the funny old Monkeyland Circus.

Through special arrangements Saturday between 1 and 5 P. M. a bargain kiddie matinee will be held. Reduced prices will prevail for all rides and shows for the school children.

The American Legion, sponsoring the festival, suggests parents bring their children if possible, and if this is not convenient, send them with the knowledge that uniform guides will be on the grounds to direct them.

After a final showing Saturday night the F. E. Gooding Amusement Company will dismantle and move to Newark, Ohio.

Alice Duer Miller wrote "The White Cliffs of Dover" in her New York apartment which overlooks the East River.

THE WAR TODAY

—By DEWITT MACKENZIE—

The early meeting of the Big Three, which Washington announces is "in the works," is calculated to pour oil on badly troubled international waters, and consequently can't be held too soon.

This is the hurricane season for the United Nations, and is an especially trying time for the Big Three upon whom falls the burden of the task of keeping the Allied ship on a fairly even keel. The end of the Hitlerian war has intensified cross-winds which have been developing: The Polish question, the Yugoslav claims to Italian and Austrian territory, the problems attendant on the occupation of Germany, the generally disturbed condition of the Balkans, the activities of the Communist cells throughout Europe.

It's no exaggeration to say that the next few months will represent the most dangerous period which the Allies are likely to encounter. We must deal with these cross-winds promptly.

If fate projects a split among the Big Three—which Heaven forbid—it probably will come in this early danger period. If we can pass through that safely, the sailing should be increasingly good.

There are numerous factors entering into this danger-period but the most important are these: (1) mutual suspicious of political and economic intentions, and (2) the fact that the Russian and British spheres of influence are undergoing radical changes as the Red tide advances westward and covers zones over which John Bull and France heretofore have held sway.

The Yugoslav difficulty illustrates the point very well. Yugoslavia comes within Russia's new zone of influence and its fair assumption that this fiery Balkan state's politico-military leader, Marshal Tito, in making his claims would act in a manner which he thought would be acceptable to Moscow. If this assumption is correct, it's logical to conclude that Tito was inspired by Moscow to adopt a conciliatory attitude in face of the Anglo-American opposition to his occupation of the disputed territory. Anyway, one hopes that this is what happened, for it would be a good sign. This column last Monday forecast that Russia would thus ease the situation.

Another concrete illustration cropped up yesterday when the Russian commentator "Observer," writing in the Moscow newspaper Izvestia, declared a report that the Soviet Union was seeking Korea, Manchuria and Formosa was "irresponsible slander by persons of unclean conscience." Well now, Russia hasn't made any claim to these territories but either there is a "suspicion" that she wants them or somebody is deliberately trying to make trouble by spreading such a report.

Then too, the Communist "Daily Worker" of London today says editorially that the British government has "assisted in building up a so-called Polish Army whose officers frankly boast that they live for nothing but the day when they can fight the U. S. S. R." Previously the Russian Army newspaper "Red Star" in Moscow had asserted that the London Polish government was training an "intervention force" for use in Poland—a claim which Polish quarters in London promptly denied.

So we could go on but it all adds up to this: the greatest service the forthcoming meeting of President Truman, Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin can render will be to iron out the suspicions, and the causes of the suspicions. Presumably they will deal with all the European and oriental situations which give rise to anxiety—and they are numerous.

JUST A FRIENDLY CHAT

Why was Jesus, the Son of God, born? In the council of the Triune God a Savior was provided, known as God, the Son, who was coexistent with God the Father, from eternity, would in obedience to the Father, take on human flesh in order that God's words would dwell among men in form of flesh. (John 1:14). That the grace of God that bringeth salvation might appear to all men. (Tit. 2:11). Through seeing, hearing and believing may be led to turn from the imperfect world and her wicked ways and follow Him who is sinless, perfect and "guides us into all truth." And also that He might pour out His Holy life blood on the cross to atone for the sin of mankind. "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners." (1 Tim. 1:15). He came not to save in sin, but to save from sin. Jesus Christ was born of the virgin, Mary, without the interposition of an earthly father. He is the Son of God in the all inclusive and all exclusive sense. He is, the Son of God, and God the Son. He died on the cross for the remission of our sins. He arose from the dead on the third day, in the body in which He was buried, for our justification, and He now sits at the Father's right hand in Glory making intercession for the saints according to the will of God. He who does not believe in His deity has no promise of present or eternal salvation.

RAILROAD BOMBINGS IMPROVEMENT SEEN

Hamburg, May 23—(Delayed)—(AP)—Two American railroad men said today German railway officials had told them Allied bombing of the Reich's rail service would have been more effective if it had been concentrated against main lines rather than the city yards, where repair crews were immediately at hand.

Ralph Russell of Haverford and Northumberland, Pa., an official of the Pennsylvania railroad, and his assistant, Warren Caswell of Rockville Center, N. Y., said they had been surprised to find the Hamburg railway system actually 95 percent operative and the electric railway, elevated street car and suburban rail services being run at 60 percent of the pre-war scale in the much bombed German port.

To the general fund of Fayette County $48,751.82 and to the board of health, withheld from county funds, $1,031.32 and from the city funds, $768.68.

Mrs. Stemler Is Hostess to Many For Club Session

Mrs. A. S. Stemler cordially extended the hospitality of her home for the regular meeting of the Thursday Kensington Club.

The afternoon was one of prolonged enjoyment, with the guests devoting the time to sewing and visiting.

At the close of the afternoon they found their places at the dining room table and several smaller ones, each table being decorated with bowls of delicately shaded spring flowers. Here the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. I. Charles Rhoads

First Lt. and Mrs. I. Charles Rhoads arrived here from Carmel, California, on Wednesday evening, coming to spend a 15 days leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Rhoads and other relatives. This is the new Mrs. Rhoads' first visit here since her marriage to First Lt. Rhoads on April 7, by Dr. Ralph Marshall Davis of the First Presbyterian Church, Oakland, Calif., at seven-thirty o'clock.

Several persons have already made plans to fete the charming young bride at various social functions which will be entertained in her honor during their visit here.

Mrs. Rhoads, a graduate of the University of Southern California, is a member of Delta Gamma Sorority.

POET'S CORNER

GOLD STAR MOTHER
To all the Gold Star Mothers,
Wherever they may be,
Who gave their sons or daughters,
For beloved Democracy,
To them I give this message
I found it in a dream,
I stood upon a battle field
It was a fearful scene.

The shot and shell fast falling,
The sky lit up awhile,
I heard a laddie calling,
His face bright with a smile,
And I knelt down close to him,
These words I heard him say,
(She will be a Gold Star Mother,
For I must die today.)

Please take this message to her,
I have not died in vain,
For Freedom and a Peaceful World,
I would do it o'er again.
Tell all the Gold Star Mothers
Wherever they may be,
To them we throw the Flaming Torch
God's Light to Victory.

Tell all to get on bended knee,
And teach each child to pray,
I listened very closely
To what that lad did say,
Please tell my mom I love her
In Heaven we shall meet,
Tell her and all the Mothers
That death for us is sweet.

I know her heart is aching,
This story please unfold,
Tell her to keep her courage,
Though her blue star, change to gold,
For it is mothers like her
Can bring the world sweet peace,
Then with a sigh of tiredness,
His weary voice did cease.

So I bring his message to you,
Upon this Mothers' Day
If he could only speak, dear
I know what he would say,
Please always teach the children,
God's Holy Way to Hold,
May Jesus bless all mothers
Whose blue star turns to gold.

96 TONS OF PAPER COLLECTED BY SCHOOL CHILDREN

$880 IS EARNED FOR SCHOOLS TO BUY NEW EXTRAS

Scores in Wartime Service Until Relieved by Scouts For Summer Furloughs

They did not wear uniforms and neither did they shoulder guns, because they were too young, but the paper troopers in the city's five grade schools and high school, have been doing their bit to help win the war.

From the time they entered active service on waste paper salvage front last September when school started until they were given furloughs for the summer about a month ago, they collected and brought to their schools a little more than 96 tons of scrap paper so vitally needed for a hundred and one war uses. And for it they got nearly $900 to buy some of the things they wanted for their schools.

No one questions their right to swell with pride over their accomplishment. Lugging nearly 100 tons of paper is a big job. They brought it to their schools, puffing and panting and tired, often literally staggering under armloads almost as big as they were. Hardly a day passed that the piles were not added to.

The youngsters had their regular routes and they kept the waste baskets of the homes on their clean.

Bobbie Cullen, the half-pint sized son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cullen, was the champion collector of the city. The Cherry Hill fifth grader brought in 5,321 pounds of paper—and that adds up to almost three tons. All told, 122 of them brought in a quarter of a ton to get into the "500 club."

Six troopers, two girls and four boys, brought in more than a ton apiece and 34 were credited with more than a half-ton each.

The Cherry Hill School set the pace for the collection with 34 paper troopers. Central was close behind, however, with 32. They were followed by Eastside with 26, Sunnyside and Rose Avenue with 14 each and the high school with two in the "500 pound club."

While the troopers left no doubt that they were collecting paper to help win the war, there was a secondary consideration, the results of which will stand for years as a testimonial to their patriotism and enterprise.

The paper was sold to junk dealers who sent it on to the place where it would do the most good in the war effort. The money went to the schools to be spent for those extras considered needed most.

The 13,000 pounds collected by high school students brought in $40 which is to be used toward erecting permanent bleachers at Gardner Park when an elaborate postwar improvement project there gets the green light.

The approximately $150 from the 21 1-3 tons sold by the Eastside pupils is to go for playground equipment such as a slide for the smaller youngsters and chinning bars for the older boys and girls.

At Rose Avenue School the playground equipment is to be repaired and some new pieces added with the $85.61 taken in from the 15,245 pounds of scrap paper sold.

Visual education slides and films, pictures for the school and weekly readers for the pupils will be provided with the $249.88 the Cherry Hill School got from the 26 1-2 tons of paper the children brought in. Some trees also have been planted.

Equipment for both the playground and class rooms is to be bought for the Sunnyside School with the $146.40 it got for the pupils' 28,140 pounds of paper.

A merry-go-round and swings are to be put on the Central School grounds with the $208.15 the 19 1-2 tons of paper brought in.

While the schools are closed for the summer, the Boy Scouts will take over the waste paper drive. Both the schools and the Scouts are under the overall command of Maynard Craig, the county salvage chairman.

The teachers, to whom handling the tons of scrap paper was just one more of the many extra burdens and added responsibilities they so often must shoulder, must merely shine modestly in the reflected glory of their pupils' accomplishments.

Edna St. Vincent Millay has also been published under the name of Nancy Boyd.

PHYLLIS BRUSH IS WINNER OF ESSAY CONTEST

She Gets $25 War Bond; Trip To Columbus for Her Writing Efforts

Phyllis M. Brush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivoah Brush of 406 East Paint Street, is richer by a $25 War Bond today.

She won first prize in the food packing essay sponsored jointly by the State Department of Education, the War Manpower Commission and the Ohio Cannery Association. Besides the bond, Phyllis will get a one-day trip to Columbus with visits to Ohio State University, a prominent industrial plant and will be a guest at an honorary luncheon at which state prizes will be announced and presented.

Phyllis will be a sophomore at Washington High School next year. She is taking an academic course.

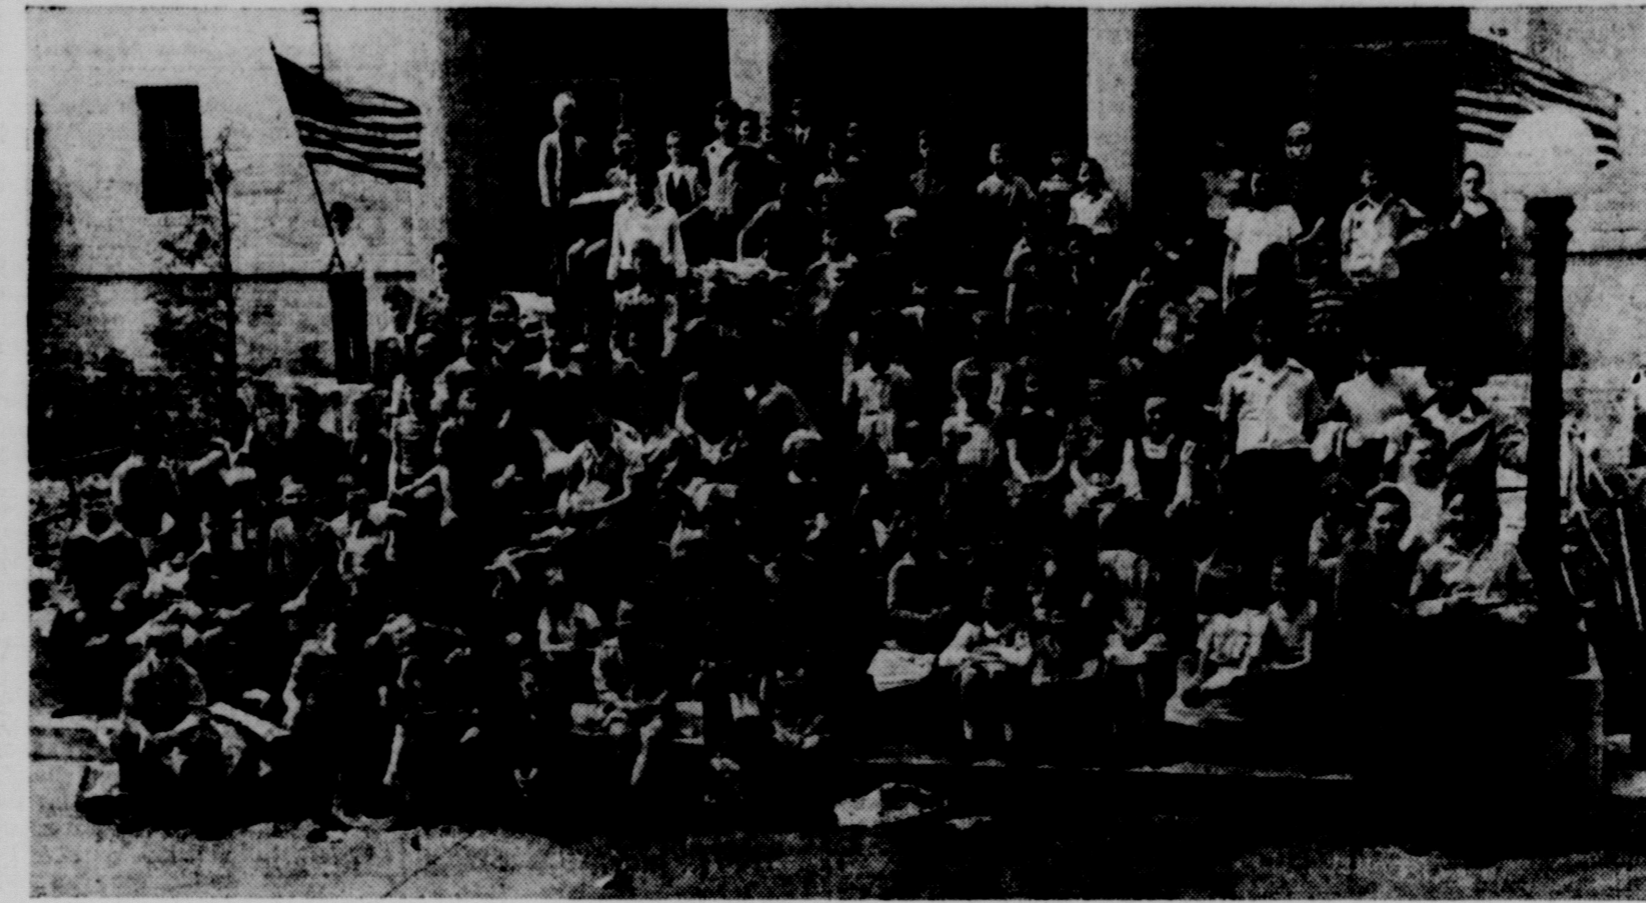

Other prize winners are Cynthia Gage, 224 West Market St., who won second prize and $15 in War Stamps. The third prize winner is Carolyn L. Bidwell, 423 Van Deman Avenue; fourth, Mary Vrettos, 401 East Temple Street and fifth, Patti Chaney, 741 East Market Street. The three girls each will receive $5 in War Stamps.

The prizes are to be presented at a special meeting the time of which will be announced later, it was said.

W. W. Montgomery, county agent; Forest F. Tipton, general manager of the Washington News Publishing Co. and Ulric T. Action, county auditor, were the judges. The topic of the essays was "Help Win the War in the Ohio Food Industry."

Phyllis' essay was chosen because it showed the most originality and relevancy of thought, thoroughness of factual basis, excellence of language and effective arrangement. Ward C. Miller, manager of the USES office here, said.

The theme of Phyllis' essay was that Ohio is one of the largest food producing states and because

—Spying— On Sports

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, May 25.—(AP)—It seems to be a 50-50 proposition whether organized baseball's effort to encourage high school baseball has made enough headway to offset the reverses it has inflicted on the program by signing schoolboy players. Scattered reports to the high school committee indicate, however, that there's a lot of interest in some spots. Illinois, for instance, had 21 more schools in its state tournament than ever before. Missouri is planning a statewide series; Indiana plans to "put forth considerable effort" to increase baseball interest next year; the high school associations of 18 states are instructional films provided by the committee and at least ten states will stage "clinics" for coaches and players with organized ball supplying the instructors.

The Giants are a trifle annoyed at the brushoff they got from Sam Braden in an effort to buy Mort Cooper. Secretary Eddy Brannick called last Saturday to ask if Mort was for sale. Braden told him to call back Wednesday night, at which time the deal with the Braves had been completed. Sam Snead's current golf worry is how long his 11-year-old driver will last. Sam gives it credit for producing those long drives. When Al Davis fought a six-round main bout against Bernie Friedkin in 1938, he was the youngest main event fighter ever to appear in Madison Square Garden. Tonight's tussle with Rocky Graziano will be Al's 12th feature bout in that arena.

F.O. Bill Atwood, former Phillies catcher, is an instructor in the pilot check-out school in India after having completed more than 200 hours of flying over the "hump." The big reason why the Bainbridge Naval Training Station won't have football next fall is that personnel has been cut so much the men can't be spared from their routine work.

Threat of Revolt In Minor Leagues

NEW YORK, May 25.—(AP)—Threats of a revolt by the minor leagues against major league domination has simmered down today to a "wait and see" attitude by a six-man committee of the National Association that finishes work on a new major-minor agreement.

After the new pact is submitted by mail to the member clubs of the minor circuits next week, the big leagues will be asked to send their representatives to a joint meeting.

Approximately 20 changes have been approved by the committee including higher draft prices, territorial guarantees and changes in the option system.

Although the minors do not expect to have all their suggestions incorporated into the new pact, they do hope to receive more consideration from the majors.

more good, hotly contested baseball. Games are scheduled for Washington C. H. where the Eagles are to meet the Sabina outfit on Wilson Field; Milledgeville, where Jeffersonville's league entry is to play and at Greenfield with Good Hope's team as the guest.

There has been a definite upswing in baseball talk—more than in recent years in any of the towns with league members—since the openers nearly played every one of the parks where play was held. Under the schedule, each team plays at home on alternate Sundays.

REDS LOSE TO GIANTS

CINCINNATI, May 25.—(AP)—The Cincinnati Reds send Ed Heusser to the mound today in an effort to stop the league-leading New York Giants who have set them down in as many days. Heusser, who is opposed by Harry Feldman, is making the fourth attempt to record his fourth victory of the season.

The Giants defeated the Reds 7-6 yesterday as pinch hitter Danny Gardella hit a home run in the eighth with one on.

Although defeated, Cincinnati proved the undoing of Bill Voiselle, Giant pitcher who had won eight in a row. He was knocked out of the box in the second inning after the Reds had scored two in the first and another in the second. Bill Emmerich who relieved him ended the Redleg rally when he struck out Frank McCormick with bases loaded.

Ace Adams, Giant relief pitcher, was credited with the victory although he faced only two batters, one of whom scored.

Warren C. Giles, general manager of the Reds, announced yesterday that Eddie Miller, stellar shortstop of last year's team, is a holdout. Miller has been on the sidelines this season because of an injured knee.

Right now, one of the most knotty problems facing the teams is lack of sufficient equipment. It was pointed out that bats, balls, uniforms, etc., are being sent overseas to the armed forces and to training centers in this country. However, the six teams in the circuit overcame these and other obstacles and got started according to plans.

ammunition dumps and installations. It claimed the suicidal raid was coordinated with air strikes on nearby U. S. shipping. Adm. Chester W. Nimitz previously announced one more light U. S. ship was damaged in air raids Wednesday and Thursday nights. He admitted the raids were continuing.

American ground troops staked ahead all along the Okinawa front. The 7th Infantry seized new hill positions more than a mile south of Yomabaru against stiff opposition, while Japanese troop movements to the south indicated the enemy was preparing to set up a new defensive line.

Sixth Division Marines poured to Naha, the island capital, on bridges built under continuous fire. The 77th Division captured two small villages near Shuri fortress and the 96th repulsed two counterattacks.

The 27th began the biggest mop-up job of the Pacific. The full division started out shoulder to shoulder to search over 500 square miles for an estimated 1,000 Japanese soldiers and to round up perhaps 150,000 Okinawan civilians.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced the "mopping up stage" was also reached on Mindanao Island in the southern Philippines. On the central plateau the 31st joined the 40th and American Divisions at Impulatao, former headquarters of the Japanese 35th Army. The Davao sector, the 24th advanced eight miles to join Guerrilla forces.

Yanks also began cleaning up disorganized but bitterly resisting Japanese in the Ipo Dam area of the Manila watershed on Luzon Island.

The three-pronged Chinese offensive sweeping toward the enemy's corridor to Indo-China engulfed Hwaiyuanchen, 50 miles from the crossroads city of Luchow. Due north, other Chinese were within 19 miles of Paoching (Shaoyang) springboard of a recent Japanese offensive.

In a belated effort to halt the Chinese counter-offensive in the Foochow area, Japanese landed reinforcements north of that recently freed port.

Australians exterminating Japanese in the Wewak sector of northern New Guinea killed 1,091 more enemy soldiers and found boxes containing the ashes of 7,000 others which had been prepared for shipment to Japan.

Japanese broadcasters foresaw a possible Allied landing on Amami Island in the northern Ryukyus.

German sovereignty through the occupation of the Rhineland and the creation of a fortifications system.

"Third, immediate annexation of Austria, crushing of Czechoslovakia and ultimate crushing of Poland in order to bring Germany, territorially, to a position for effective defense.

"If the course we then proposed to take should lead to a big war," Hitler continued, without specifying what that course was, "obviously war would have to be accepted. Because it was better to accept it then in a moment when we were superlatively prepared rather than at some other moment in which this advantage might have been lost.

"Finally there were psychological considerations, one being the mobilization of spiritual forces of the German nation.

"What we achieved through National Socialist education, through a gigantic wave that engulfed the people, we could not afford to waste.

"I was convinced that in the next 10, 20, 30, maybe 50 years, no man would appear in Germany with more influence on the nation than I, with greater zeal in reaching decisions. I believe the years to come will prove I judged rightly."

DIABOLICAL EXPERIMENT
DETLESAU, Germany, May 25.—(P)—Dr. Carl Taubak, a Czechoslovak botanist, has told Fourth Infantry Division officers that the Nazis planned wholesale sterilization of non-German eastern Europeans by use of an extract from a Brazilian plant.

He said yesterday he had taken part unwittingly in experiments with the plant, Dieffenbachia Seguine, which was nurtured in Nazi greenhouses, but that he did not realize what the plan was aimed at until he was questioned by the Nazis about the extract's effectiveness on humans as a sexual sterility agent.

men."

Any PW suspected of affiliation with the SS or Gestapo has been weeded out of the work gangs. They live in huge enclosures surrounded by barbed wire and guards.

U. S. officers are enthusiastic about the way it has worked out. The army is making Russians, Poles, French, Belgians, Dutch and the like—all former slave laborers of the Germans—guards.

The commanding officer of the largest quartermaster supply depot in this theater, Col. Albert Barden of Springfield, Mass., has 8,300 prisoners of war working for him. He expects another 1,600.

Another 1,700 PWs are working in a vehicle repair depot nearby, along with 800 enlisted men, 200 former German slave laborers and 400 French civilians.

Each commanding officer tells the same story.

"Sure," the officer says, "they get good food. You can't get a lot of work out of an animal unless you feed him enough. Besides, most of the food they're getting is stuff we captured from the Germans—vegetable stews and things that our boys wouldn't touch. We give them clothes that we salvaged and can't be reassured to our troops, and we give them decent places to live. And then we work the tail off them."

Everyone enjoys most of all the PWs' reactions to their guards.

Lt. Col. Thomas L. Donnelly, commanding officer of a repatriation center in Belgium, states the case:

"They'll work hard enough under an American soldier for a guard, sure. But get one of those Russian boys or a Pole out there with a crew of PWs and you never saw people work so hard in your life. All those guards do if they think things aren't going fast enough is just glare at a prisoner."

The French are putting the bite on the PWs in their own way. As the Germans sweat out their work, the smiling Frenchman lounges insultingly against a nearby wall. He doesn't say anything, but quietly smokes what Frenchmen call a cigarette and just watches. That's all he just smiles and watches.

The committee said the Allies should take joint action to remove Franco, as head of the Spanish government since the old republic was overthrown in civil war, and provide the Spanish people with the means of holding an immediate consultative election.

The committee said the Franco regime was forcibly imposed and that throughout the European war its neutrality was a fiction.

Even as the French committee spoke out, the Communist party publication L'Unité in Rome called on the Italian government to break off diplomatic relations with Spain, charging Franco was giving refuge to high ranking fascists.

The newspaper asserted that Filipino Amfuso, Italian Fascist ambassador to Berlin, had arrived in Barcelona late in April aboard a "Croat plane" and was using the name of Count Monti de Mosassino. The publication said:

"Pending application by the Democratic governments of the Yalta decisions, which provide for complete destruction of all remnants of Fascism, let us for once set the example by breaking with Franco."

Spain has been under frequent attack in Moscow, especially while the Spanish Blue Legion was fighting beside the Germans on the Eastern Front. Today's

DAY'S ACTIVITIES IN WALL STREET

NEW YORK, May 25.—(AP)—The stock market extended its recovery move by fractions to 2 or more points today with demand centering on rails and a wide assortment of industrials. Forward leanings were in evidence at the opening, feeling becoming rather urgent near midday and dealings picked up appreciably. There were subsequent slowdowns and top marks were trimmed in most cases near the fourth hour.

Clare Boothe Luce, playwright and congresswoman, in her girlhood ran away from home and got a job with a New paper novelties.

98 SENIORS GET DIPLOMAS HERE THURSDAY NIGHT

WAR NOT OVER IN EUROPE IS CLASS WARNING

James Cassidy, Speaker, Warns Against Soft Peace Terms

The 98 seniors in the Washington C. H. High School class of 1945 have their blue-covered diplomas in a safe place today after receiving them from Ray Brandenburg, president of the board of education, at the 69th annual commencement exercises in the high school auditorium Thursday night.

James Cassidy, WLW war correspondent, told the class that it was fortunate in meeting a world halfway at peace. The commencement speaker was introduced by A. B. Murray, superintendent of city schools.

"I think that by the time another class enters this auditorium, this war will be over completely," Cassidy declared. Then on a more pessimistic note he said: "The war is not really over in Europe. We have vanquished Germany with our arms but not the German people's spirit. No signing of a peace of paper will end the war for those people."

Jobless, homeless people can't stop thinking with hatred, Cassidy said.

Calling Aachen a "test-tube city," Cassidy said he believed the fact that the Allies did not make good their threat of pounding the city to rubble if the Germans did not surrender prolonged the war.

"What happened at Aachen may happen on the diplomatic side, too," Cassidy said. He said that not making good the threat at Aachen led the German people to believe that the Americans would never make good any threats, in his opinion.

"If we bluff, they will not give in. We must enforce a hard peace. This world at this moment is in a more complex condition than at any time since the war started. The time of the greatest danger is now. We can never afford to let the Germans come back again," Cassidy said.

Murray, in presenting the class to Brandenburg, said it was a pleasure to introduce such a fine class and prepare it to receive its diplomas.

Brandenburg, speaking briefly before he began to distribute the diplomas, told the graduates: "You're worth everything above the eyes and only around $4 a day below. Often it's the work you don't get paid for that pays you most in the end."

He gave a diploma to each senior as Stephen C. Brown, high school principal, called the name of the boy or girl. Brandenburg included a kiss with the diploma he presented to his daughter, Doris, and Murray claimed the privilege of presenting his daughter Janice with her diploma.

Parents of the three servicemen members of the class received the diplomas on behalf of their sons: J. J. Burris for Charles Burris in the Navy, Fred L. Coldiron for James Coldiron in the Army and Mrs. William Curry for William Curry, in the Navy.

Brown spoke of the class's scholastic record as he honored ten students with the highest grade averages. They were, in order, Barton Montgomery, Martha Lou Nisley, Mary Lou Follis, Doris Brandenburg, Bette DeHeart, Carry Reeves, Jr., Janice Murray, Wilma Jean Annett, Barbara Zimmerman and Loraine Allen.

Barton Montgomery, besides ranking highest in his class scholastically, won a four-year scholarship at the College of Agriculture in Ohio State University; rated first in the county and received honorable mention in the district and the state in the general scholarship test for seniors given March 9; and won sixth place in social studies in the district state scholarship test and honorable mention in the state in the same subject.

Other students who had an average of B or above for their four years of high school are: Patricia Eileen Long, Sara Viola Reeves, Delbert Brandenburg, Harriett Braun, Virginia Mark, George Hall, Edna May Lininger, Annalee Howe, Beverly June Long, June Cook, Jo Ann Pope, Jean Burke, Dorothy Hard and Donna Mae Jett.

Two of the seniors made their

CIGARET LICENSES
Deputy County Auditor Morris Baker said Friday, that with two days left in which to obtain cigarette licenses for the coming year, only 50 licenses had been obtained by retailers.

Last year about 100 retailers obtained licenses, and indications are that many will not apply for renewal of their licenses at the present time, but may do so later if cigarettes become more plentiful.

BLOOMINGBURG SENIORS TOUR WASHINGTON D. C.

Three Day Trip Ends for Class of 1945 Thursday

The Bloomingburg Senior class is back home again—back after three glorious days in Washington D. C.

They did everything too—they saw the house and the senate in session and also witnessed a committee meeting. Rep. Clarence J. Brown met them and helped show them the Capitol building.

They saw the library of congress, the supreme court building, the Shakespearean Library, the Washington Monument, Jefferson Memorial, Lincoln Memorial; the quiet Arlington cemetery and the tomb of the unknown soldier; the National Art Gallery, the Corcoran Art Gallery and the Freer Art Gallery; Lee's mansion and Washington's home, Mt. Vernon.

They saw St. Alban's Cathedral, the Pan American Union building, the Shakespearean Library, the Smithsonian Institute with its thousands of exhibits.

The 16 seniors were chaperoned by Mrs. Elton B. Elliott. Two girls who were members of the class of 1943 made the trip also—Donna Marilyn Purcell and Edna Ann Emery.

Luckier than most Washington visitors, the class stayed at the Ebbitt Hotel. They made the trip to and from the capital on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

The Washington trip is a tradition at Bloomingburg. Every class except the class of 1943 for the past eight years has made the tour. And the 1945 seniors were no exception to the rule—they paid every cent of their expenses with the money they earned during the year. They left Monday and returned Thursday morning.

WILL REGULATE SCRAP HAULING OVER HIGHWAYS

Offenders To Be Brought in And Given Limit in Municipal Court

Following many complaints of damaged and ruined motor vehicle tires in this city and on the Columbus road, as result of steel scraps being hauled by Columbus truckers, an official tightening up on the hauling is planned with charges against drivers of such trucks whenever they are found violating the law.

Attention of the State Highway Patrol, as well as local law enforcement officers, has been called to the scattered steel scraps which bore into tires in short order, and the officers will give attention to apprehending the violators wherever found.

It was pointed out that the state laws makes it mandatory that all vehicles using the highways have tight beds so that no harmful cargo may be scattered on the highway and streets.

Complaints made here are that steel fragments trickle from the loaded trucks, and also from the empty trucks on the return trip.

One local firm estimates that considerable effect on the local ments has cost his firm upward of $500 the past year.
